South African Bracelets

Bambanani bracelets have a special story: they are handmade by unemployed women in Namakgale, South Africa. Also, disabled people produce them in the Phurulenke Project centre in Mashihismale, where they receive day-care and education. Each bracelet comes with a card with the name of the maker, who directly gets €1. The rest goes to Bambanani projects and Femmes d'Europe. bambanani.org/en/
